(LISTED BELOW)25X1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. On 1 February 1952, the Kwangsi Military District ordered the mobilization of cadre personnel from troop units stationed in Kwangsi in order to expedite the completion of land reform throughout Kwangsi and to give these troops practical experience in land reform work. The order was issued in accordance with directives from the Chinese Communist Party Committee for Kwangsi and the Kwangsi Land Reform Committee.
2. By mid-February about 3,000 cadre personnel, all above company grade, had been mobilized: 1600 from troop units under the direct command of the Kwangsi Military District; 600 from units of the 21 Army Group; 700 from units of the 13 Army Group; and 100 from the public security forces (總隊) of Kwangsi. They were to assist in checking the land reform work already accomplished.
